bunch of free ones. Henry was given a breathing space at first because Gus S Hetling could not hypnotize a little bunt. R Hetling could not hypnotize a little bunt into his mit. Mr. Bob Groom, Esq., handed over four very nonchaiant ones to Bill Howie, and of course a run was forced in. Then Cole hit a wide on the forehead, and while Ellis was picking it out from the white clover in the sungarden, Brown and Henry were busy acamparing home. Howie got caught between third and home because of his own attempt to be clever. Cole got to Station Three however as the little pitches was nabbed, and when Abbett a moment later got to first on a fielder's choice, and fried to steal second. Cole ran in home safely on Sebeaugh's cross play with Shortstop Byrne, which failed entirely, the little shortstop making a bad return throw to his catcher. That meant four runs, and the last Wichita, June 8.—Wichita took the Missouri lifted its fing once in the sixth. Zoeliers went to first on Quisley's error, to second on Hetling's out from Brown to Abbott, and scampered home a moment later when Grum muffed a fly off Sebeaugh's bat in right field.

Finally—yes, finally—an umpire, of Shiveley's appointing, made his appearance at most anything, but he will insist that his choppers be given a right to mainpulate when he watches an outclassed team prevent its master even, from furnishing a fair article of the sport.

That was the stination exactly when the Springfield Highlanders or Slumberers, as they ought to be more appropriately named, fell with "thickening thurt," as one wag puts it, beneath the heels of the White Sox at Association Park on Wednesday afternoon, and had the lights shuffed out at a ratio of 50 1 just the same score as was registered against them the day before.

In brief, as outlined by a letter from Mike Cronin, Sullivan's offer is to fight the native son at 133 pounds, with a side bet of $1,000 that Britt cannot get the decision. Britt fought Gans, a 133-pound man, and Sullivan can easily handle Hanlon, and it is a moot question if he cannot negotiate Britt if the Hegewisch man will make the weight. Sullivan's appearance in San Francisco was confined to a match with Joe Angelo, in which "Twin" did not get all the better of it; but he had been nearly a week on the cars and had only the oklahoma Sportsman's association in progress here, the world's amateur squad record was broken. Mr. Britt Declines.

San Francisco, June 8.—Jimmy Britt is much disgruntied over the outcome of the Corbett-Hanlon fight. He counted on Corbett winning and expected to fight the Denver boy. Now that Hanlon was declared winner, Britt says he will not fight him, as no crowd could be secured for such a battle. On the other hand, Hanlon would have to go out of his class, and would he beaten all most to a certainty. Britt said today: "Of course, if the public demands it, I will meet Hanlon; but I should prefer the first was the longest of the senson on the local diamond.

Stopped a Runaway and Received a Bouquet of Violets.

New York, June 8.—Charley Mitchell stopped a horse dishing down Broadway the other night. The horse was drawing a cab, and in the cab was a young woman and her mother. Mitchell, accompanied by his trainer, Tom O'Rourke; Jack Welch, the San Francisco referes, and Harry Kelly, an actor, was on his way to the Hotel Delavan. Coming down Broadway horse, preceded by shouts and cries from the women in the cab and the assembled multitude.

From the yells Mr. Mitchell and the rest of his party were led to believe that there was something doing and Mr. O'Rourke, observing that it looked like rain, took steps to get under cover as quickly as possible, followed by Welch and Kelly. Not so with the challenger of the once mighty John L. He stood his ground, and reports have it that he frightened the horse into a state of nervous prostration and the wild animal at once became as quiet as a lamb and placed his head tenderly in Mr. Mitchell, waiting hand.

Mr. O'Rourke hastened forward with a brandy and soda, got at a suggestion of Mr. Mitchell, for one of the women, who, upon being revived, said that she was Mrs. John Phillips of the Hotel Belickline. The other, who did not faint, was her daughter. Miss Helen, who bestowed thanks and a bunch of violets upon Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell, carrying his violets modestly, like a hero, and accompanied by the wild cheers of the onlookers, continued his journey with his training staff to the chop ourney with his training stuff to the chop hit the ball if he meets it with his ng.

Bruggeman, Sedalla's new pitcher, had a rather sad experience the other day in a game which he tossed against Guthrie. In the first three innings but two hits were made off his curves, the only two balls which he threw over the plate. The other seven men walked. The family blanket was hauled out and put around him, but it was too late, the sponge had gone up.

The sporting editor of the Oklaho-man has his geography mixed. Okla-homa City played at Leavenworth the other day, and in his headlines he an-nounced that the Mets batted the ball all over Missouri.
